SAILRITE TIDBIT

New 2010 Sunbrella Fabrics

Now is the perfect time to get caught up on your sewing "wish list." Whether you're looking to make new curtains and pillows, spice up your patio furniture, or re-upholster your living room chair, Sailrite is here with great fabric selections, threads, sewing notions, and instructions.

Better yet, we are introducing the new 2010 Sunbrella fabrics! We've added some beautiful new colors, patterns, and textures to our Sunbrella Marine Grade, Sunbrella Furniture Fabric, and Sunbrella Awning Stripes collections. So take a moment and browse through our many fabrics at www.sailrite.com.

We promise you'll be inspired.

CUSTOMER SPOTLIGHT

How do you use your Sunbrella fabric?

Ron Scindle of Florida made some saddlebags for a friend's dog, Rascal:

"Our friend's dog, Rascal, uses these saddlebags to carry her water, bowl, snacks, and plastic bags on long runs. I made them out of left over awning material and piping that I had used for our house. The straps that go around her chest and under her belly have snaps and Velcro for easy adjustment. The top has a handle and a loop where a leash or a little bling can be attached."

Send your project description and photos to sailrite@sailrite.com. We may even feature your project in next month's Tidbit!
